Welcome to the 2017 Kaleido Family Arts Festival!

Arts and culture provide a unifying force to a country and shape who we are. They bring depth to our experiences and open doors to new possibilities. This year, as we mark Canada 150, it is the perfect time to celebrate our country's creativity and talent in all our communities.

We are proud to support the Kaleido Family Arts Festival, an inclusive and accessible event that engages people of all ages with a broad spectrum of artistic and educational activities. The Festival, which offers such a rich program, continues to grow in popularity and attracts wonderful and passionate artists.

As Minister of Canadian Heritage, I would like to thank the Arts on the Ave Society and all of the volunteers for making Kaleido such a successful event.

On behalf of the Government of Alberta, I would like to welcome you to the 12th annual Kaleido Family Arts Festival!

As a fun festival celebrating the arts in the province, Kaleido brings the inspirational power of the arts to local families and visitors near and far. It brings people together in an exhilarating celebration of colour, shapes, sounds, and movement. As the minister responsible for arts and culture in Alberta, I am proud to recognize Arts on the Ave and its efforts in bringing the joy of artistic expression to people of all ages.

The Honourable Rachel Notley

Premier of Alberta

On behalf of the Government of Alberta, welcome to the Kaleido Family Arts Festival.

For the next three days this festival will transform the streets, alleys, and balconies of Alberta Avenue. This inspiring and creative festival has provided an environment where artists can showcase their talents and freely display their imagination and passion.

I hope local residents and visitors alike will continue to build on this budding community tradition, by supporting both the Alberta Avenue Arts District and the many talented local artists displaying their unique work.

My thanks go to the organizers, volunteers, and especially the artists of this wonderful festival. Your hard work and dedication help to transform our communities into beautiful works of art.

Rachel Notley

His Worship Mayor Don Iveson

Mayor, City of Edmonton

In just over a decade, the Kaleido Family Arts Festival has become an integral part of Edmonton's summer festival calendar. This event continues to grow each year, helping give life to an increasingly diverse and vibrant arts scene in the 118 Avenue district. With performances on rooftops, in back alleys, parks and other shared spaces, the Kaleido Festival brings the community together to transform one of Edmonton's historic neighbourhoods into a canvas for artistic expression.

I thank the Alberta Avenue Arts District and the many volunteers, sponsors and contributors who make this festival possible each year. Your passion and commitment fosters an appreciation of art in Edmonton and enhances our city's thriving arts and cultural scene.

The Morin family / Kaleido 2016

Message from the Festival Producer

Christy Morin, Founder / Executive Director
Arts on the Ave

Welcome to our 12th Kaleido Family Arts Festival. This year has been a year of celebration for us as a charity. The Carrot Community Coffeehouse celebrated it's 10th Anniversary, as did our sister festival Deep Freeze: A Byzantine Winter Festival. We are also celebrating Canada's 150. I have learned through my family roots that "celebration" is a key ingredient in keeping a family strong. We as a community are creating rituals and traditions for years to come. Thank you to our artists, performers, volunteers, sponsors, donors, production team, board of directors, and you, our audience for believing and sharing life together to the fullest on Alberta Avenue. It takes many hands, hearts, and dollars to keep this festival going. Please consider the opportunity to give Arts on the Ave a financial donation on a monthly basis. We are a charity and all donations will receive a tax receipt. Kindly go to our website, www.artsontheave.org or visit the info booth today and become a part of our financial partners and celebrate community arts, family and Edmonton together.

"Fall in Love with Kaleido"

See you out on the Ave.

Arts on the Ave presents: Fall in Love with Kaleido!

We are pleased to celebrate our 12th year of Kaleido Family Arts Festival! Our arms are open wide embracing Edmonton, while we continue to share arts in the Alberta Avenue District with a radically open festival that highlights our city's culture and provides its people with the reclamation of their streets. We are a transformative arts festival where the audience becomes the artist, while using our environment in unique and crazy ways. We are builders and visionaries. We treasure our historic neighbourhood. Through wonderful dialogue between artists, schools, businesses, and neighbours, an artistic occupation of the city is brought to life this weekend. Endless possibilities reign with "Arts for Everyone"!

At its core, Arts on the Ave believes in cultivating artistic and educational fellowship through arts celebrations, signature arts festivals, and traditions. The Society's goals are to nurture creative environments and to create opportunities for everyone to experience the joy of artistic expression. Arts on the Ave is composed of visual and performance artists, literary and film artists, photographers, and musicians who collaborate and create in the Alberta Avenue Arts district between NAIT and Northlands.

1. Kaleido Festival Gallery: Exhibition & Sale

Nina Haggerty Centre for the Arts (9225 – 118 Ave)

HOURS Friday: 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm | Saturday: Noon to 8:00 pm | Sunday: Noon to 6:00 pm

Welcome to the 12th annual Kaleido Festival Gallery exhibition at the Nina Haggerty Centre for the Arts. All the artwork on display is available for purchase with a portion of the sale going to support the Kaleido Family Arts Festival. This exhibition showcases a variety of artwork from emerging to established artists. We hope you enjoy this juried exhibition.

Here are some engaging ideas and activities you can try while you are looking at the artwork, especially if you have children:

- Start by not reading the artwork's label: look at the work first; see if you can imagine what the work is about.
- You Name the Artwork: What would you call the piece? Re-name one or two of your favourite artworks. Discuss the reasons for the new title.
- Tell Stories: Make up a story about one of the paintings or sculptures. Ask questions.
- Play I Spy: Choose an object/colour/shape/texture in an artwork and have friends and family members take turns guessing which artwork it is. If it is an object/shape/texture you will need to describe it first – but don't give too much away!
- Seek and Find: Pick your favourite colours, shapes, textures or objects and see how many you can find in the artwork. This game helps the viewer to look more closely at the art.
- Change where you stand: Change how you view a piece of art by moving really close (but remember, no touching) then move really far back. Talk about the differences.

Colour Me Quack • Trace A Face • Kaleido: Project Love • Extension

We are a group of Edmonton based artists, and Fine Art alumni from MacEwan University. In these particular pieces, we aim to evoke thought within the viewers and also to encourage interaction with the art. Our main concept is the idea of love and global acceptance within the Community. Our hope is that people take away a positive outlook and try to create their own interpretation and find a common connection with the art pieces.

Don Vaugeois Tribute | Sunday 2:50 pm

Don Vaugeois was friend that I never sat and had a coffee with; yet, we were friends, kindred spirits – lovers of art, family, faith and life. Don was a family friend that honoured family roots and family friendships.

I remember looking for a piano-donor many years ago, that would donate pianos to our Kaleido stages. I called Don's Piano Place and Don answered the phone. After sharing who and what Arts on the Ave was and was doing – Don asked, "Was your grandfather Stan from the Bruin Inn?" "Yes" and he quickly responded, "How many pianos do you need? and when?" That generosity and huge heart is how folks knew Don. Nothing was too much, and "let's make it happen" was the spirit and abundance that Don shared with so many music students, music festivals and music schools.

Then I heard the news, Don had left this world – we were all saddened and stunned.

We are honoured to present Don's Tribute at Kaleido Family Arts Festival this year. Thank you to Don's family and his artist friends that will share their art and tribute to Don.

Veronica Lednický and Mark Donovan, Nancy Watt and Crystal Krips, Calvin Wong, Julia Dolman, Charlie Austin and Zephyr Danse.

In tribute to Don, let's remember to 'pay it forward' and live life filled with laughter, faith, family and music. – Christy Morin

Don, may you smile on your stage this Sunday.

With thankfulness and love, Kaleido Family Arts Festival family and patrons.
